CAPTAIN RUSSELL J. BARTLETT UNITED STATES NAVY

for service as set forth in the following

CITATION:

For exceptionally meritorious conduction the performance of outstanding service as Director, Security Assistance Directorate on the staff of the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Navy (International Programs) from February 2006 through January 2008. Demonstrating exceptional leadership, Captain Bartlett orchestrated the efforts of more than 600 Security Cooperation professionals in the Department of the Navy and United States Coast Guard, and provided oversight of more than 4,200 Foreign Military Sales cases with a total value exceeding $55 billion. During his tenure, Navy International Programs Office opened more than 500 new Foreign Military Sales cases with sales value exceeding $4.5 billion per year, the highest in 15 years. This included the first international sale of the F/A-18E/F Super Hornet to Australia, Excess Defense Article P-3 aircraft to Spain and Japan. Taiwan, and AEGIS Weapon Systems for Additionally, Captain Bartlett managed the inception of the National Defense Authorization 1206 Program for the Navy, and implemented over two-thirds of the Department of Defense programs in the initial year and more than 50 percent of the programs in the second year. He was instrumental in building the strategic relationship with India through the highly successful transfer of the ex-USS TRENTON and six H-3 helicopters. Captain Bartleta's superior performance of duties highlights the culmination of 25 years of honorable and dedicated service. By his dynamic direction, keen judgment, and loyal devotion to duty Captain Bartlett reflected great credit upon himself and reld the highest traditions of the United States Naval gvice.

CITATION:

For outstanding meritorious achievement as the Combating Weapons of Mass Destruction and Joint Integrated Air Team Lead for the Director, Navy Quadrennial Defense Review Division on the staff of the Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Resources, Requirements, and Assessments) from December 2004 to February 2006. Captain Bartlett contributed significantly to the Quadrennial Defense Review of military strategic policy and force structure His brilliant performance in the demanding and dynamic environment of the Quadrennial Defense Review enabled the Chief of Naval Operations to shape critical issues and decisions ficing the Department of Defense, significantly improve the Navy's contribution to joint waffighting and build the foundation to transform the Navy into the twenty first century. He routilely provided insightful analyses to senior Navy leadership on a diverse array of Quadrennial Defense Review topics. These efforts ranged from spearheading the all-service, multi-agency Weapons of Mass Destruction Render Safe concept-working group, to the development and evaluation of wideranging options for tactical aircraft integration and consolidation as part of a Department of Defense study of future integrated joint air capabilities. His leadership, innovative thanking and capabilities-based approach to program and budget issues enabled the formulation of chitically important Navy-wide policy and strategy initiatives. The exceptional professional steadfast initiative, and selfless dedication to duty exhibited by Captain Bartlett reflected great dedit upon himself and upheld the highest maditions of the United States Naval Service.

CITATION:

For exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding service as Commanding Officer and Flight Leader of the Navy Flight Demonstration Squadron (Blue Angels) from September 2002 to November 2004. Commander Bartlett led the nation's premier flight demonstration squadron through two grueling seasons and logged over 1,200 sorties in the exceptionally challenging and totally unforgiving regime of high-speed and very low altitude Blue Angels formation flying. He led 135 flight demonstrations at 71 cities that were flown to the highest standards of safety under a variety of weather conditions, temperatures, and terrain. As the Flight Leader, Commander Bartlett achieved a mastery of the lead position in the four-plane Diamond and six-plane Delta formations. His precise maneuver profiles ensured safe and professional flight demonstrations before millions of spectators throughout North America. Leading the Navy's foremost recruiting tool, his personal efforts were instrumental in the Navy exceeding its recruiting goals year after year. Commander Bartlett's dynamic direction, keen judgment, and inspiring devotion to duty reflected great credit upon himself and upheld the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service.

for service as set forth in the following CITATION:

For outstanding meritorious service as Commanding Officer of Strike Fighter Squadron 195 from September 1999 to April 2002 while deployed to the Western Pacific Ocean and Arabian Gulf. Commander Barilett consistently performed his demanding duties in an exemplary and highly professional manner. He expertly led his command across the full spectrum of warfighting missions while setting the standard for Air Wing FIVE in operations, maintenance, administration, and safety. His comprehensive vision and inspirational leadership were the driving force behind the squadron's incredible safety record of over 19 years and 78,000 Class ALPHA mishap-free flight hours, over 10 years Class BRAVO mishap-free and zero command fatalities during his tour. Aschairman of the Air Wing's Strike Warfare Committee, his squadron excelled during Exercise TANDEM THRUST, leading the largest multinational exercise in the Pacific. The "Dambuster's" led and executed an extremely successful "HULKEX." This rare opportunity to sink the ex-USS REEVES cruiser hulk provided valuable anti-surface warfare training for five Air Wing FIVE squadrons. Additionally, he spearheaded a comprehensive revision of the NTTP 3-03.4 NASAWC CVW TACMEMO and Air Wing FIVE addendums, which has dramatically improved the Air Wing's ability to excel in the time critical strike and other extremely demanding strike warfare missions. By his exceptional professional ability, personal initiative, and total dedication to duty, Commander Bartlett reflected great credit upon himself and upheld the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service.

For meritorious service while sensing aim Air Anti-Submarine Squadron TWENTY-FOUR, Naval Air Station, Cecifi Field, Florids from November 1986 to October 1989. Lieutenant BARTLETT's exceptional aviation skills were critical elements in every operational success achieved by his command. As a Carrier Air Wing EIGHT qualified LSO, he demonstrated unparalleled knowledge of carrier flight operations and contributed immeasurably to a most successful MED 1-89 Cruise. His temacious punsuit and innovative tactical employment of the S-3A was aptly demonstrated in every operational endeavor. Particularly noteworthy were his efforts in new mission areas of DCM and Aerial Refueling operations. By spearheading fleet introduction of the S-3 Aerial Refueling System, he significantly influenced airwing doctrine for the first S-3 deployment as a mission and recovery tanker. A well rounded officer who volunteered to act as the Command Fitness Coordinator, he ran a model PRT program balancing physical training with life style modification that enabled 14 personnel to pass the feet for the first time, thus enabling them to continue productive Ravy careers. Lieutenant BARTLETT's exceptional professional ability initiative and loyal devotion to duty reflect great credit upon himselfs and the United States Haval Service,
